DAG Architects Appoints Jamie Stephens, AIA To Associate Principal

Destin, Florida –DAG Architects announced today that it has appointed Jamie Stephens, AIA, in its Destin office, as an Associate Principal. Founded in 1981 by Charles W. Clary, FAIA, DAG has offices in Atlanta, Destin, Melbourne, Panama City, Pensacola, and Tallahassee and has designed iconic projects throughout the Southeast and the Caribbean.

Stephens joined the firm in 2016 and has been a leader in cultivating the firm’s culture of design excellence. Since joining the DAG Architects, she has been a designer, and project manager on more than 100 projects including K-12 schools, multi-family, office buildings, and retail. She was recognized by the NW FL chapter of AIA for her commitment to serving the community and is currently serving as the 2024 president of that chapter. Most notably, Stephens led the effort for the first WELL® for Multi-family project in the state of Florida, resulting in it receiving the WELL® Precertification “Jamie is an amazing colleague who best represents DAG Architects work, values, and principles. Her promotion to Associate Principal is well-deserved, and we are proud to recognize Jamie for her commitment to our firm, her commitment to design excellence, and her desire to give back to the community in so many ways. She is truly an inspiration,” said the firm’s Managing Principal, Roger Godwin, AIA.
